

Grupo Viva Aerobus entered into a US$300 million loan term facility

Mexico City, December 31, 2025 – Grupo Viva Aerobus S.A. de C.V. (“Viva” or the “Company”) and its subsidiary, Aeroenlaces Nacionales, S.A. de C.V., entered into a US$300 million senior secured term loan facility backed by USD denominated and settled credit and debit card collections rights generated from the sale of passenger tickets and other related services (including those processed by Worldpay and excluding American Express). SMBC, Santander, and Bladex acted as Joint Lead Arrangers and Joint Bookrunners. Viva intends to use the Financing proceeds for general corporate purposes.

About Viva

Viva is a Mexican ultra-low-cost airline that provides air transport services across Mexico, United States, and other Latin American countries. Founded in 2006, Viva operates one of the youngest aircraft fleets in America. With a clear vision to give all people the opportunity to fly, Viva is focused on democratizing air travel by offering low fares and a low cost service. For more information please visit: <https://www.vivaerobus.com/en-us/>

